PROLOGUE

Welcome aboard mates! We are here to tell you the story of the 1954 voyage of the H.H.S Tower.

Graduation will come and we will leave dear old H.H.S. to take up larger tasks. We will have pleasant memories of the friendships made and the incidents occurring while aboard the Tower.

More sober memories will keep us aware of our responsibilities to those who gave so much that we might make this voyage in learning.

This book is intended to record something of how we lived, what we saw, and what we did.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class, dedicate this, our 1954 TOWER, to MR. MELVIN R. RUGGLES, who for the past six years has willingly given his time to the advancement of the school and its many activities.

Because of his understanding, interest, hard work, and unselfishness, we will always remember his as our lasting friend.

CLASS HISTORY

As our ship prepared to hoist anchor and leave on another voyage of inspiration and learning, in August, 1942, a large crew of frightened shipmates boarded the H.H.S. Tower for twelve years of sailing.

In 1950 we anchored in "Icard," where we gained thirty-eight interesting shipmates. Then all together in September we made our first appearance in high school.

"Gee Whiz!" That's what the shy Freshman Class said as they mounted the stairs of the high school building. We were a confused group of students, lost in this new world. Then we began to realize that we were members of it. Forgetting our shyness, we set about to make those upperclassmen know we had arrived.

The halls rang out our announcement, until out of nowhere—unless from the unknown rooms—a stern but friendly principal greeted us. We were assigned to our quarters and given specific duties. Our navigators were Mr. Hollar, Mrs. Hege, and Mr. Miller.

We entered as Sophomores, feeling a little more confident. Mr. Ruggles, Miss Jenkins, and Mr. Scott were now our navigators.

We enrolled as Juniors under the command of Miss Beach and Mr. Logan. At our first class meeting we elected Guy Martin, President; Alene Atwood, Vice-President; and B. K. Lail, Secretary-Treasurer. Seventeen of us were inducted into National Beta Club and attended the State Concention in Asheville. On May 1, 1953, we entertained our departing Seniors with a Banquet at the Catawba County Country Club. The "Starlight Ball" was one of our most exciting and long remembered thrills.

On September 2, 1953, we became "DIGNIFIED SENIORS!" Alene Atwood was our President; Eugene Hilderbrand, Vice-President; and B. K. Lail, Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Yeoman and Miss Greeson were our helmsmen.

Some outstanding events of the year were: receiving our long awaited rings; class trip to Washington; presentation of the class play, "The Perfect Idiot," and publishing the 1954 Tower. In the spring a Banquet was given in OUR honor.

We finally reached our destination, "Graduation," and dropped anchor.

To us, the Senior Class of 1954, graduation is not the end but the beginning.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1954, realizing that our high school career is coming to a close, do declare this our Last Will and Testament.

To the teachers we leave our love of pestering them, in hopes they will forgive us.

To the school building, the busses, and the lockers, we leave deep feeling for the way the have served us.

To the Sophomores and Freshmen we leave the "Floating Power," in hopes it keeps on Floating.

To the Juniors we leave the following treasures:

Carroll Eckard leaves his side-burns and mustache to Leon Ledford.

Nancy Rhoney leaves her vocal talent to Melvin Brannock, hoping he is able to get on key.

Nancy Nell Simpson leaves her Southern Swing and Northern Drawl to Frances Bridges.

Guy Martin leaves his basketball skill to Dorothy Sain.

B. K. Lail and Glenard Shoup leave to Howard Van Horn their pestering ways.

Calvin McNeely and Clinton Euliss leave their neatness to Betty Jean Gregory.

Charles Pittman leaves to George King his daydreaming in class.

Paul Brady leaves his job, to keep the Senior Class in laughter, to Pryllis Burns.

Johnny Stowe leaves his pranks to Arcola Munday.

Jo Ann Propst leaves to Ruby Brittain her beautiful long eyelashes.

Alene Atwood leaves to Bobby Martin all her Yankee scrapbooks; maybe he can keep them up to date!

Doris Ritchie leaves her ability to get engaged in high school to Katherine Wilburn.

Carson Brittain leaves to Mary Ann Foster his love for driving the "Floating Power."

David Swanger and Hal Yoder leave their smart remarks to Glenn Young.

Luvy Ingle leaves to Michael Bowman her size 6 shoe.

Gladys Mosteller leaves her ability to get a husband to Shirley Wilson.

Blanche Hart leaves her naturally curly hair to Doris Lloyd.

Dorothy Abernathy leaves to Henry Lowman her cheering uniform.

Berlene Decker leaves to Miles Eckard her silly jokes.

Janell Danner leaves her love for riding in convertibles to Tommy Johnson.

Carolyn Throneburg leaves her reducing pills to Margaret Drummond and Rachel Williams.

Jerry Sweet leaves his green conventible to Jeanette Miller.

Reba Berry leaves her horn-rimmed glasses to Nanette Aderholt.

Robert Miller leaves to Rachel Bollinger his ability to collect what people owe him.

Jackie Sherrill leaves her job of taking the absentee list to the office to Richard Speagle.

Clay Hoyle leaves his originality to Marcus Johnson.

Eddie Harmon leaves his big brown eyes to Robert Sellers. They're "20-20" boy!

Wayne Childers leaves his front seat in Economics Class to David Cooke.

Eugene Hildebran leaves his ability to avoid women to Carroll Chapman.

Charlotte Eckard leaves her big laugh to Nancy Earley.

Harold Evans leaves his ability to concentrate to Robert Bliss.

Charles Bridges leaves to Jimmy Baker his courting ability.

Marjorie Freuler leaves her locker to Sylvia Miller, hoping she is able to get it open.

Edsel Johnson leaves his dramatic facial expressions to Charles Cooke.

Nora Richard leaves her absentmindedness to Edna Stephens.

Wynelle Whisnant leaves her majorette stunts to Margie Teems.

Estelle Smith leaves to Carol Coffey her many boy friends.

Jackie Isbell leaves her typing speed to McDowell Wilson.

Naomi Ledford and Christine Huffman leave their slender figures to Rachel Watts.

Henry Page and Rebecca Jarrette leave their quietness to Shirley Townsend and Iris Kanupp.

Doris Day leaves her critical grin to Irving Eggers.

Scottie Sue Lynn leaves her love of basketball to Roger Childres and Johnny Stephens.

Doris Townsend leaves her love for a certain boy to Shirley Franklin.

Tony Penland leaves to Martha Bostain his football helmet.

Evelyn Rudisill leaves her dark complexion to Jesse Knox.

Maxine Bowman leaves her smooth way of talking to Rachel Lowman.

Jack Hudson leaves his blushes to Carolyn Edwards and Joyce Miller.

Jalain Vanhorn leaves her understanding of the French language to Barbara Johnson.

Johnny Eckard leaves his smart remarks and tall-tales to Johnny Bolick.

Tommy Cooke leaves his dancing ability to Eugene Weaver.

Janette Throneburg leaves her love of Florida, especially Miami, to Paul Greenhill.

Callie Lail leaves her fondness for shorthand to Charles McGalliard.

CLASS PROPHECY

"The hurricane hit at 12:07 A.M. Two seamen were lost." So went the notation in the Captain's Log. But somewhere out in the eye of the storm lay a mystic isle, home of the sirens. It was upon these shores the two were toseed. Their lives were spared but never could they leave the island. As compensation for their lifetime captivity they received the gift of knowing what was going to happen to their shipmates . . .

As they gazed into the mist about the island, strange shapes began to form. Manhattan Island: Down on Broadway a new show is opening tonight, destined to be a hit. The new dance team, Nancy Nell Simpson and Tommy Cooke.

This evening's headline of the New York "Times" reads—"New 'Floating Power' car dsigned by Hal Yoder."

In Georgia Street Receiving Hospital familiar faces are seen at work. Dr. Carroll Eckard, assisted by nurse Reba Berry, just delivered twins to Mrs. Gladys Mosteller.

High in a penthouse we find Carolyn Throneburg entertaining guests. Among them is the famous actor, Boyd Lail, recently home from Europe.

Over on Wall Street some men are at a conference. Tony Penland is trying to decide to put David Swanger's new invention on the market. They are consulting with an accountant, Jackie Isbell.

Doris Townsend can be found at Yankee Stadium, selling tickets. She is still a devoted fan.

Atlantic City: Judge Carson Brittain has just crowned Nancy Rooney as Miss America. He is still chasing the girls.

Paul Brady's Concession Stand is the main point of interest on the board walk. They say he has a million, but we know better. It is only half a million.

Washington, D. C.: In the Blue Room we find Doris Ritchie, the President's secretary, interviewing the ambassador to France, Eugene Hilderbrand, and his secretary, Jalain Van Horn.

At the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier we see Johnny Eckard directing change of guard. He really did go to West Point!

At the Naval Observatory we see Edsel Johnson studying the stars. He doesn't know it, but he will be the first earthman to set foot on the moon. We fear it will take him so long to get there, that he will never return.

Notre Dame: Coach Guy Martin led his squad to victory today. High over the field Eddie Harmon gave the play-by-play. Down on the field Robert Miller and Glenard Shoup had some trouble refereeing. At halftime the famed Wynelle Whisnant Band gave a splendid performance.

Miami: Maxine Bowman is doing fine with her "Ye Old Salts Inn." It seems Florida agreed with her after all.

Dallas: Neiman-Marcus held a fashion show this evening. Phyllis Fulbright modeled some creations by Jerry Sweet. Her jewelry was created by Dorothy Abernathy. A fashion columnist, Doris Day, was present.

Reno: Wayne Childers, Clinton Euliss, and Harold Evans, lawyers, are involved in a million dollar suit. They will win the case and retire.

California: Out in the Mojave Desert we find the cottage of Christine Huffman, now wife of Charles Bridges. Mr. Bridges is working for the government as a weatherman. At least he is safe in forcasting there.

At Camp Pendleton Scottie Lynn is directing the cameras for a new movie. She is assisted by Major Charles Pittman on technical matters.

Sergant Evelyn Rudisill of the F.B.I. has just cracked a case. This will mean a promotion to head of the field office in Alaska. Quite a change from California.

Henry Page today celebrated his 25th anniversary in the Trans-Pacific shipping business. He also honored two stewardesses who have been with him from the start, Lucy Ingle and Jeanette Thorneburg.

France: Three secretaries, Janell Danner, Callie Lail, and Nora Richards, are vacating on the Riviera. We notice they brought along their minks.

Naomi Ledford lives in Paris. She is writing a book entitled, "How Not to Get Lost in Paris."

Holland: Rebecca Jarette, Jo Anne Propst, Estelle Smith, and Jackie Sherrill are in an odd business. They raise flowers for perfume . . . Sweet smelling work, we must say.

London: Guests are crowding in for the coronation of Prince Charles. Among those present we find a reporter, Clay Hoyle; a banker, Johnny Stowe; a fashion expert, Berlene Decker; and an author, Charlotte Eckard.

And what of dear old Hilderbran? Where is it today? As the mist parts, we see a ghost town. It seems everyone has moved away.

Then out of the mist rises a monument. The inscription reads: "In memory of Alene Margaret Atwood and Marjorie Edith Freuler who were lost at sea on the 1954 voyage of the H.H.S. Tower." It seems they think we are dead. Too bad we can't go back and tell them what we know.

THE PERFECT IDIOT

Even a boy-wonder like Dan wasn't smart enough to figure out how perfect an imitation he was going to give when he decided to act like a perfect idiot! Dan's worried mother and father and his popular younger brother, the charming Linda, her father, who is school principal, the athletic Puff, his girl friend, a group of peppy high school students, the philosophical colored maid, the pompous soap manufacturer, a fussy teacher, a policeman, a newspaper reporter, and a brain specialist—these all play in a grand array of parts in a farce that's full of laughter.

SATURDAY PRACTICE

After several weak seasons, the girls' team has made a successful comeback in Burke County competition. Under the leadership of their new coach, W. Z. Schreck, they have ironed out many of their troublesome difficulties. There has been a complete change in both the offensive and defensive parts of the team. On the offense the girls have shown their ability in learning patterns and actually working them in their games. With Ramona Burns acting as the center, and Rose Ann Barringer and Mary Ann Foster as forwards, the offsense showed new ability in hitting from both inside and out.

The guards started in September to learn and work a zone defense. It has proved to be very effective in holding down the opposition. To supplement this new defense, the guards, led by Ruby Brittain, Scottie Lynn, and Carol Coffee, have also learned to work effectively a tight man-to-man defense. With two forms of defense, the guards have shown marked improvement.

To show their enthusiasm for basketball, the girls have been willing to give up their extra time on Saturdays to practice. At these daily practices, Coach Schreck drilled the team in the fundamentals of ball handling and in teamwork. New leadership and new interest and ability have given our girls a spirited team which all can be proud of.

With only one senior leaving the team, Scottie Lynn, the girls have a bright future in line for them. Reserve strength has been a weakness this year, but with added experience, Coach Schreck's bench strength should meet the need. So here's to luck to Mr. Schreck and the basketball girls in years to come.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

"WHAT IT WAS, WAS FOOTBALL"

The Royals started their 1953 season in a non-conference game with Troutman, winning by a score of 60 to 8. The second game of the season was postponed from Friday until Monday of the next week because of heavy rains. This game was taken from the Royals by Tri-High, with a score of 26 to 6. The Royals, pepped up after their loss, came through the third game, which was a non-conference game with Harmony, by a score of 44 to 12. The Royals then took a hard fought battle from Salem. score—31 to 6. Cliffside came to meet the Royals, but they were defeated by the hard fighting crew from Hilderbran by a score of 48 to 18. After their fourth win the Royals seemed to be steamed up more than ever. The next two games were easy wins for the Royals. The Drexel Wolverines came to meet the Royals at Hildebran with victory in their eyes, but they were discouraged by our hard fighting team.

An inspired Royal team traveled to Scotts with a win necessary to clinch the title. A loss could have thrown the conference into a three way deadlock, but the dressing room oration of Coach Ruggles lit the torch of victory and proclaimed us conference champions for the second consecutive year.

One of the greatest hi-lights came after the season was over, when two of Hildebran's players, Bobby Watts and Leon Ledford, were elected to the All-Conference first team, while Bud Martin, Co-Captain and Center for the Royals, was given a place on the second team.

HILDEBRAN ROYALS

The Hildebran Royals 1954 basketball season opened with six non-conference games. They defeated St. Stephens at Hildebran by a score of 44-43 for the first game of the season, with Senior Guard Robert Bliss tallying 19 for the Royals. The second game of the season took Hildebran to Valdese where they defeated the Valdese team by a score of 50-43. Cleveland High came to meet Hildebran's big 5, but went back defeated by a score of 72-60. The fourth game brought Lenior to Hildebran. Lenoir went into a double overtime and defeated the Royals by a score of 53-51. The Royals then went to meet Cleveland at Cleveland and again defeated them by a score of 51-48 for our fifth game. The Royals then traveled to St. Stephens but this time were defeated by a score of 63-43. Then came our first conference game for which the Royals seemed to be steamed up after their second defeat. These two defeats didn't matter too much because they were both non-conference. Oak Hill came to meet the Royals at Hildebran but were defeated by a score of 57-35.

Again the Royals' schedule took them to Valdese for the eighth game of the season. This game was a non-conference one, with the Royals' big 6′ 4″ Senior Center Bud Martin tallying 22 points to help the Royals win by a score of 45-42. The ninth game of the season brought Drexel to Hildebran and they went back defeated by a score of 56-43 with Martin again tallying the largest number of points for the Royals. The N.C.S.D. team came to meet the Royals and found that they were just a little too tough. The Royals defeated them by a score of 63-53. The eleventh game, which was scheduled with George Hildebran, was postponed because of weather conditions. The Royals took it easy for the next 2 games. For their 12th game they defeated Glenn Alpine by a score of 58-46. They rolled over Salem by a score of 57-49 with Bliss again tallying the largest number of points. The Royals' fifteenth game was a scheduled non-conference bout with Kings Creek, which was played at Hildebran. The Royals won by a score of 56-45. The Royals then traveled to Drexel to defeat them for the second time this season by a score of 57-42. Robert Bliss, so far, has the highest average of points per game.
